- Increase of security by law enforcement at synagogues/houses of worship and Jewish shopping areas.
- Synagogues/Houses of Worship where thousands of members of the Jewish community will gather for prayer services and ceremonies
- Thousands of members of the Jewish community will be spending shopping for the upcoming holidays
- Remembers and prayers for family members who have deceased
- The day before Passover It is customary to burn any leftover bread and other leavened food (Chametz) in ones possession.
- The seder rituals take place on these 2 evenings. Since this is a time when many families celebrate the seder together,
- many homes will be empty at night, and many will be walking home in the late hours of the night.
- At these days holiday will begin at Sundown. Special attention to arrest situations
- At these days observance of a Holiday restricted day. Non driving days.

We are thankful to Law Enforcement for your extra attention and security to the community during the holiday season.
